

R E P O R T

OF THE

REGISTRAR OF FRIENDLY SOCIETIES IN IRELAND.

FOR THE YEAR ENDING 31 DECEMBER 1872.

(Pursuant to 18 & 19 Vict. c. 63, s. 43.)

THE Registrar has certified during the past year the rules of 34 new societies giving relief in sickness and a payment at death ("Tontine" Societies), and 32 amendments of rules, and the rules of five Burial Societies, and seven amendments, three amendments to Loan Societies' Rules, and four amendments to the rules of Benefit Building Societies, and one amendment to the rules of an Annuity Society; he has also certified the rules of three Co-operative Societies and two amendments of rules.

He has received 91 notices of the appointment of Trustees, 47 notices of change in the place of meeting of Societies, 16 Treasurers' bonds, and one Secretary's bond.

Two societies have deposited their rules under the 44th section of 18 & 19 Vict. c. 63.

One Loan Society has been certified by the authorisation of the Home Secretary.

The following societies have been legally dissolved, and notice of their dissolution published in the "Dublin Gazette":—St. Mary's Mutual Benefit Society, 9, James'-street, Drogheda; Royal Veteran Mortality Society, 10, Irwin-street, Dublin; Loyal Banks of the Bann Lodge Odd Fellows' Society, Banbridge, County Down.

Three societies have sent notice of their dissolution; they are: Blackrock and Booterstown Protestant Fellowship Society, Carysfort Church Schoolrooms, Blackrock; St. John the Baptist Friendly Brothers Tontine Society, Blackrock; Emerald Isle Tontine Society, 32, Augier-street, Dublin.

Two notices of amalgamation of lodges of the Odd Fellows' Society have been received by the Registrar. There has not been any Benefit Building Society certified during the past year; this is attributable to the uncertainty which has prevailed with regard to new legislation for Building Societies, no less than three Bills for that purpose having been introduced into the Commons' House of Parliament during the present Session, none of which has become law. The Third Appendix to this Report contains a list of all the Benefit Building Societies in Ireland which have been certified since the passing of the Act 6 & 7 Will. 4, c. 32.

The Registrar has again this year sent out to every society on his books which he believed to be still in existence, the form of Annual Return (supplied to him for that purpose by the Registrar for England) and he has not received back more than two-thirds of the number, and he has also, by printed post-card notices, called upon societies in default to send in returns before the 1st June, but with very little effect.

The Registrar therefore, in order to facilitate inquiries into the existence of societies neglecting to make returns to him, has prepared lists of all the societies entered in his books, or whose rules are in his custody, setting out in tabular form the information contained in the Returns transmitted to him for the past year, and noting, in the case of societies in default, the date and nature of the last entry in his books concerning them; these lists will be found in the appendices to this Report, and form a complete index to all societies registered in Ireland from the year 1793 to the present date. It will be observed in these appendices that very many societies from which returns were received in 1872, have neglected to forward them this year, and it will be necessary to provide in future legislation for the transmission, by some particular officer of a registered society, of an Annual Return, in a defined form, with a penalty in case of default. Under the present law, the Registrar, as observed by him in his last Report, is obliged to receive a copy of whatever report has been presented for the past year to the society. The Registrar would have added columns showing the amount of sickness and the death-rate, had the returns been sufficiently accurate to enable him to do so.

The First Appendix to this Report contains all the Burial and Sickness Benefit Societies; of these, 349 make returns, showing a total number of members of 78,919, and having an annual income of 64,416 l. 5 s. 5 d., out of which 6,964 l. 5 s. 2 d. was paid during the year for sickness benefit, and 12,811 l. 6 s. at death. The expenses of management (always a reasonably small item in Ireland) were 8,162 l. 0 s. 3 d., (one society alone, afterwards mentioned, is responsible for 1,207 l. 11 s. 9 d. of this sum); the amount returned to the members by way of dividend at Christmas was 15,495 l. 16 s. 9 d., and the cash in hand at the end of the year was 27,302 l. 14 s. 2 d.

It will be seen that the largest of the societies making returns is an Irish branch of the United Assurance (formerly St. Patrick's) Society of Liverpool, which shows a Total in Ireland of 26,000 members, and an annual income of 8,003 l. 18 s. 7 d., with payments at death of 3,778 l. 12 s. 1 d., and expenses of management 1,207 l. 11 s. 9 d., besides 1,795 l. 7 s. 4 d. collectors' fees; in all, 3,002 l. 19 s. 1 d., or 37½ per cent. on the gross receipts; it pays also 39 l. 10 s. for "intentions," or masses for the deceased members, and has 1,182 l. 17 s. 5 d. in hand, 1,000 l. of which is stated to be in a Post Office Savings Bank.

The Royal Liver Society of Liverpool, which also has a branch in Ireland, still omits to give any separate return for that branch, and all that can be collected relative to its Irish business, from the statement issued in September 1872, is the fact that the Society has 131 l. 2 s. 11 d. in a Savings Bank in Dublin, upon which it received 3 l. 10 s. interest.

This statement shows, however, for the United Kingdom an income for the year of 193,813 l. 5 s. 4½ d., exclusive of 8,817 l. 1 s. 9 d. transferred to its endowment fund, and the expenses of management amount to 68,863 l. 5 s. 2 d., being nearly 4,700 l. less than the committee appears to be warranted in spending under their 58th Rule (which sets apart 40 per cent. of the annual contributions for this purpose), and no doubt the committee are astonished at their own moderation. Two editions of this Report have been sent to the Registrar, the later of which has printed on the back of the sheet laudatory notices of the society, extracted from "The Reporter or London Monetary Times," 21st September 1872; the "London Mirror," and "The Sussex Coast Mercury," of same date, and the "Liverpool Leader," and the "Liberal Review," of 14th September 1872, all showing that this society is one of the safest and most prosperous in existence. It would have been satisfactory, however, had the return stated the number of members in the society, and the total amounts assured.

While this Report was in preparation, a further statement of the funds of the Royal Liver (the 23rd) to 31st December 1872, was sent to the Registrar, which shows that the fund in the Savings Bank, Dublin, has increased to 184 l. 14 s. 11 d., and that there has been received a further sum of 3 l. 12 s. interest.

The collections for six months in the burial branch are 95,249 l. 8 s. 1 d., and in the sick branch 3 l. 18 s. 1 d., and in medical aid branch 577 l. 18 s. 11 d. The interest account shows an income of 6,441 l. 13 s. 6 d., of which 1,046 l. 2 s. 6 d. is stated to have been transferred to the endowment fund, but no separate account is given of this fund.

The management fund brings forward on the credit side a balance of 9,019 l. 17 s. 6 d. from the last account, deducting sums amounting to 1,456 l. 9 s. 11 d. for sick branch, medical aid branch, and rent of premises from 30th June 1870 to 30th June 1872, and then the 40 per cent. on contributions received, amounting to 38,099 l. 7 s. 2 d.

Among the debits are, commission to collectors,—

The general balance sheet shows 332,472 l. 0 s. 1 d. in hand, but again the total number of members and total sum assured for which the society is liable is not shown.

The statement ends by a certificate, signed by accountants, that they have audited the accounts, and certify the figures to be correct, and that they have satisfied themselves of the existence of the securities.

With this statement a copy of the "Liverpool Daily Post," of 10th July 1873, was sent to the Registrar, which contains a report of the annual meeting of the society held the previous evening, which meeting was addressed by the Chairman, Mr. William Atherton, and some other members, including Mr. James Atherton, who is reported to have said, that "the committee had in years gone by watched with fear and trembling the growth of the Royal Liver Friendly Society, and they had almost trembled within themselves when they saw what other gigantic associations, as they then considered them, were making, when their own little firm scarcely possessed 50 l.

The Registrar refers at length to the proceedings of the society, because he has not yet got beyond the same state of fear and trembling regarding this society which, as above stated, has formerly troubled the committee, and he would be very glad to be enabled to show how much of the capital belongs to the branch which is under his jurisdiction, and what are its liabilities.

The North Albion Burial and Endowment Society, 82, Lincoln-street, Belfast, applied to the Registrar to certify its rules, but as it appeared from the printed rules submitted to him that this was only a branch of a society certified elsewhere out of Ireland, he declined to certify its rules unless all the provisions required by the 26th section of the 18 & 19 Vict. c. 63, were complied with in them, which caused the withdrawal of the application.

The council of the Foresters' Society transmitted the printed general laws of that body to the Registrar for his certificate, but he was obliged to decline to grant it unless the references contained in these laws to repealed Acts of Parliament were omitted, and the rules brought into conformity with the present law, and he also required the insertion of a provision for the final settlement of disputes in the locality where they had arisen, or at least in the same part of the United Kingdom, and he objected to the rule for arbitration for this purpose as contained in the general laws. The council declined to comply with his requirements, and these general laws still remain uncertified for Ireland. The Registrar submitted the facts and his reasons for declining to certify the rules to the Registrar for England, and had the gratification to find his views endorsed by Mr. Stephenson.

The Registrar regrets to have to state that the experiment tried by the Midland Great Western Railway of Ireland Benefit Society, of taking life policies for its members from the Postmaster General has resulted in failure, the advantages thereof, as the return states, not being appreciated, and this insurance is now left optional with the members. The report of that society, however, mentions cases of two deaths, in the first of which only two contributions, amounting to 1 s. 6 d., had been paid, and the legal representatives received from the Postmaster General 47 l. 15 s. In the other, which was not insured with the General Post Office, the payment by the society was only 2 l. 16 s. 3 d.

The state of affairs in the Dublin Andean Burial Society mentioned in the Registrar's last Report has not improved, and complaints continue to be made of its management, and of the impossibility, from the large number of members and the extent of the area of the society's operations, of exercising any effectual control over the officers in their expenditure of the funds.

Several of the widows of officers of the Royal Irish Constabulary, who are annuitants on the funds of the Royal Irish Constabulary Officers' Widows' Annuity Society, have complained to the Registrar of the management of that society, and the difficulty now experienced by them in obtaining payment of their annuities. The return for the year ending 30th June 1872 of that society, in the 5th Appendix to this Report, shows a total of 160 members, capital of the society 5,598 l. 6 s. 2 d., gross annual income 1,375 l. 3 s. 10 d., and an annual liability to 36 annuitants of 1,008 l. 9 s. 5 d.; and it is not easy to understand why the 4th Resolution at the annual meeting mentioned in that return, namely, "to wind up the affairs of the society," was passed unanimously at its 10th annual meeting, unless, perhaps, that it was due to the fact that the annuitants, although claimants on the funds, yet not being members, were not represented at the meeting.

Since the Registrar's last Report, an information has been filed (on the 9th of April in the present year) in the Court of Chancery in Ireland, at the suit of the Attorney General against the trustees of the Literary Teachers' Society for the purpose of having the funds declared to be a charitable trust, and administered under the direction of the Court. The return received from that society will also be found in Appendix No. 5.

The Waterford Annuity Company has placed its affairs, as the Registrar has been informed, in the hands of an actuary, with a view to winding up the society society and dividing its funds between the annuitants and the members, but the annuitants are stated to be dissatisfied with the proposition.

The Duke of York Protestant Loan Fund Society, which suffered severely from defalcations in former years, and to which the Registrar called attention in his last Report, has not made any return this year.

Appendix No. 2 contains a list of Registered Loan Societies from which returns have been received.

In conclusion, the Registrar desires to call attention to the fact that in some of the Building Society legislation proposed in the present Session, the interests of the poorer class seem to have been overlooked. It would be worse than useless to offer to small building societies liberty to register under an Act which repeats the multifarious provisions of the Companies Acts, and the result would be the total extinction of societies such as the "Working Man's Benefit Building Society," mentioned in Appendix No. 3, and he has to state his opinion that complex legislation, involving an immensity of trouble, and the certainty of heavy expenses, is not what is required, but the passing of an Act for all Friendly Societies which will afford protection to the savings and investments of the members, and which will help to "keep simple folk by their right, defend the children of the poor, and punish the wrongdoer."

Dated 26th July 1873.
